Shipwrecked!

An Entertainment:

The Amazing Adventures of Louis de Rougemont
(As Told by Himself)

By Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright Donald Margulies

Student Matinees Tues-Fri
February 14th-24th, 2012

The adventurous Louis de Rougemont invites you to hear his amazing story of bravery, survival, and celebrity that left nineteenth-century England spellbound. Featuring tempests and battles, pearl divers and sea turtles, Shipwrecked! examines how far we're willing to blur the line between fact and fiction in order to leave our mark on the world. Part Robinson Crusoe, part Gulliver's Travels, this is sure to be a fun ride for students 4th grade and above.

"The Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright Donald Margulies scampers to the defense of good old-fashioned yarn spinning with Shipwrecked. The breathless story of a Victorian gentleman [and] seafaring wanderer springs to life like a theatrical pop-up book." —NY Times.

"What a fabulous opportunity for students and teachers alike! The performance was exceptional—provocative and compelling."
--Standley Lake High Teacher (after attending our production of Crime and Punishment last year)

"This was a great opportunity for [my students] to see the world is so much bigger than their block. It was also wonderful to hear the students speak about the play all the way home on the bus. They are often a group that doesn't speak up and express their opinions. The play brought something out of them that I haven't seen."
--Summit Academy Teacher (after attending our production of Crime and Punishment last year)
