

Kohl PTA Minutes

December 2, 2008 6:00 p.m.

1) Welcome—Thank you for coming!

2) Mini-grants

Discussion and vote for approval: PTA has always been very generous to fund extra projects/materials for classrooms. Each teacher is eligible to request $250. The budgeted amount is $8275; this year's mini-grants add up to $8273. Mini-grants were approved.

3) Updates on recent activities

Kohl Carnival: Brought in net profit of $4968. We very much appreciate the hard work to make such a great event for our school!

Book Fair: Total profit around $3000 for the library, a bit more than last year. As usual our community gave great support for the book fair and the library. ☺

Restaurant Night: Chick-Fil-A went well. Kohl earned $410.95. We may do it again in the spring.

4) Information on upcoming activities

Restaurant Night: Next week, Wednesday Dec. 10 from 5:00 to 9:00, is Noodles night. Anyone who brings in flyer will support Kohl (Kohl gets 25% of sales).

Accreditation Visit: This week we have visitors from other schools and districts spending time at Kohl to see what we're doing and offer suggestions. They will review our school goals, meet with teachers and parents, and observe classes. They will put together suggestions and recommendations for Kohl's continued growth and improvement.

Holiday Gift Shop: Gift shop is this Friday and is still in need of volunteers. If you can help after school, please contact Allison Wheeler at awheeler_14@msn.com.

Vision & Hearing: We have vision & hearing testing this Friday during the day. Volunteers are needed; if you are available to help, please contact Kristi Vaughn in the Kohl office at 303-466-5944 or kristi.vaughn@bvsd.org.

5) New ideas

Book Swap Idea: Vicki Lutz, a new Kohl grandparent, has a new idea to support reading at Kohl. Families would bring in books that their children were finished with to trade with other families. Credit would be given based on number and type of books brought in. The idea is to try it once a month or every other month. The first "Book swap" day will be on December 9 from 2:45 to 3:15 in the cafeteria.

Freiker (moved to January agenda)

6) Thank you for coming! See you on January 13!
